

THREE NEGROES ARE BURNED AT STAKE

BUD BALLEW IS RIDDLED WITH BULLETS BY TEXAN AS HE REACHES FOR GUN

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., May 6.—Chief of Police J. W. McCormick was the center of all eyes here today. Yesterday he matched speed with the famous master of guncraft, D. M. "Bud" Ballew—and won.

As a result, Ballew, survivor and hero of many perilous situations, is mourned by admiring friends who thought him virtually invincible; and McCormick for the first time in his long police service is entitled to a notch on his gun for having killed a man.

This city, which sprung from a mere town to a small metropolis within a few months following the discovery of oil in nearby fields, witnessed much excitement during the crusade against lawlessness which accompanied its rapid growth, but no event of that period eclipsed yesterday's episode in romantic interest. The incident recalled the pioneer days of Texas when open saloons and public gambling halls were regarded as necessary adjuncts to every community and guns and knives were necessary implements for every man; when cattlemen in boots and chaps vied with Indians and rustlers; when the man who was "slow with his gun was quick to die" the other man being the judge, jury and executioner combined; and when to "die with one's boots on" was to die in the most honorable shroud.

Yesterday's affair with some variation might well have occurred in those early days. Chief of Police McCormick had word that Ballew was behaving in a bad fashion in the Ohio soft drink parlor. He went around to investigate. He walked up to Ballew and charged him with being drunk, demanding that he hand over his pistol. This was a demand with which Ballew was particularly not accustomed to obey.

With the contemptuous remark, "Hell, you're out of luck," Ballew, according to eye witnesses, reached for his gun, but McCormick, seeing that it was the gun's contents rather than the gun that Ballew intended to give him, flashed his own into view and started firing, continuing until five shots had entered Ballew's riddled body.

Eight Notches on Gun.

It was a 28 against a .45, and the former won. The latter, in fact, never left its holster. And it will remain there forever more, so far as its own is concerned; nor will its eight notches ever be increased by the man in whose defense it had served so well—until yesterday.

Had the shooting occurred in the early days McCormick would probably have been acquitted at the bar of public opinion as having acted in self defense and Ballew's body probably would have been thrown across a horse's back and taken away for a rude burial. But, happening as it did, in a 20th century city, McCormick was immediately arrested and placed under bond of $20,000 while Ballew's body was placed aboard an airplane and taken to his late home at Ardmore, the scene of many of his daring exploits, there to be mourned by Buck Garrett, Ballew's bosom friend.

Was Unique Figure.

The passing of Ballew removes from the southwest one of the few remaining figures typical of pioneer sheriffs whose unique and fearless method of enforcing the law and apprehending criminals made him the hero of fiction stories. And the story of Ballew's colorful life would make as interesting and thrilling reading as an action account of wild west exploits.

Ballew had come to Wichita Falls to act as judge in the annual southwestern round-up. On the first day of the performance he was introduced to the crowd at the stands as "Bud" Ballew, the man who stayed through it all with Buck Garrett and says he is glad he did."

First Man Chief Killed.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., May 6.—F. M. "Bud" Ballew, former deputy sheriff at Ardmore who was killed here yesterday by Chief of Police J. W. McCormick, was the first man to die at McCormick's hands. Reports that Ballew's slayer had previously killed a number of men were denied today by the chief and by those here who know his personal history.

About two years ago, while serving with the Texas rangers in this county, McCormick shot a man during raids on the oil fields, but not inflicting a serious wound, and that, he says, is the only shooting affair preceding that of yesterday that he ever participated in.

All four of the bullets that entered Ballew's body entered from the front. The hole in the back of Ballew's head was caused by a bullet emerging from the skull after it had entered the left eye. Witnesses agreed that Ballew faced his slayer

Famous Gunman Reaches Home Today in Plane; Body is Riddled.

ARDMORE, May 6.—Thousands of persons have looked upon the face of Bud Ballew, since the body arrived here by airplane late yesterday from Wichita Falls, Tex., where the former deputy sheriff was killed by Chief of Police J. W. McCormick.

At noon today no funeral arrangements had been made and it is probable none will be until the widow arrives to-night from visiting friends near Oklahoma City.

Buck Garrett, former sheriff and closest friend of the dead man, refused to talk of Bud's death except with close friends who made an examination of the body last night.

NOTED FINANCIER CALLED BY DEATH

Henry Davison, Morgan's Trusted Lieutenant, Dies in Operation.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Henry P. Davison of J. P. Morgan and company died on an operating table today. This announcement was made at two o'clock at the Morgan office. Mr. Davison died at 1:30 p. m.

A notable financier, Davison will best be remembered, perhaps, as the man who at President Wilson's request directed the work of the American Red Cross in allied countries for the two years the United States was at war with the Central Powers. Taken out of the hurly burly of Wall Street, one of the most active of the 15 partners in the firm of J. P. Morgan & Company, the man who 23 years before had walked the streets of New York looking for a job, directed the first "drive" of the American Red Cross for funds, raised $114,000,000 and within a few weeks had Red Cross workers at their tasks in Italy, Belgium and Switzerland as well as war-torn France.

H. P. Davison was one of the most trusted lieutenants of the elder J. Pierpont Morgan, who commissioned him to represent the firm in numerous financial negotiations abroad. He made many trips to London, Paris and Berlin. He made a study of the financial system of Germany in 1908 and, three years later, in that city, presided at a conference of international bankers regarding the Hankow-Sze Chuen railway loan in which the so-called six powers group was interested. In 1915, he was one of the negotiators of the $500,000,000 American loan to the Allies. For his war work abroad he was honored by many governments and Columbia and other universities conferred upon him the honorary degree of doctor of laws.

Conserved Child Life.

Mr. Davison was especially interested in the conservation of child life in Europe after the war and, with Herbert Hoover and others, planned a world-wide campaign in behalf of the children abroad.

In 1919, he was one of the advisers of President Wilson at the Paris peace conference.

Some persons in Wall Street considered him to be the most active man in the House of Morgan. He had vast responsibilities but he never seemed hurried and never showed excitement.

Mr. Davison's wife was Miss Kate Trubee, of Bridgeport, Conn. They have three children, Henry P. Davison Jr., and the Misses Alice T. and Frances Davison. Their home is at 690 Park Avenue, New York City. They also have a summer home at Peacock Point, Locust Valley, Long Island.

CLEAR SKY GIVES PROMISE OF GOOD FESTIVAL MONDAY

Athletic Field of College to be Scene of Gala Fete Next Week.

H. S. BAND WILL PLAY

Linscheid Invites all of City and County to See Spring Jubilee.

Clear skies held out glowing promises today of fair weather Monday for the annual May Day festival to be held by students of the Teachers College on the college campus, beginning at 5 p. m.

Programs for the fete have been printed and will be sold on the ground, Miss Anna Weaver Jones, director, announced.

In discussing the festival today, Dr. A. Linscheid, president of the college, issued the following statement:

This is to extend a cordial invitation to all the people of Ada and Pontotoc county and all others who may be interested to attend the May Festival which will be given on the athletic field of East Central Teachers College, Monday afternoon, May 8, at five o'clock.

The festival will be given under the direction of Miss Anna Weaver Jones, assisted by practically all the other departments of the Teachers College. The success of similar festivals under Miss Jones' direction in the past, together with the amount of preparation which she and her students have made for this event, insures that it will be in every way worthy of the College, and also insures that it will be intensely interesting from the spectators point of view.

High Schools Represented.

"Nearly every high school in the district will have representatives here to assist with the festival. The Ada High school has kindly consented to send her excellent band and to, assist otherwise with this event.

"There will be no admission charged, and people will be permitted to drive their cars on to the athletic field, back of the throne of the May Queen. In this manner all who cannot find seats in the grand stand will be given an opportunity to witness the activities without discomfort.

Miss Anna Louise Shaw is May Queen, and Mr. Sam Little acts the part of Robin Hood. Young ladies from twenty high schools in the district will act as princesses in attendance upon the Queen of May. Every one is cordially invited to attend this, one of the most important of the events of the year."

SENIORS ENJOY ANNUAL PICNIC UPON BIG SANDY

Seniors of Ada high school forgot the worries coupled with graduation Friday and took themselves to the shade and quiet of the woodland and creek to enjoy the annual senior day outing. Two trucks conveyed the outgoing students of the local school to Big Sandy, where fishing, kodaking, swinging, and playing games formed the program for amusement.

The class gathered at the city hall at 10 a. m. and spent the remainder of the day in enjoying themselves. Luncheon was taken and enjoyed in regular picnic fashion. Every student who went on the trip returned home expressing themselves as having had a great time, and several had fish stories to tell. Those who went were:

ACCUSED BLACKS PLEAD DESPERATELY FOR LIVES WHEN MOB STORMS JAIL

KIRVEN, Tex., May 6.—Three negroes were burned to death at the same stake here at 5 o'clock this morning by a mob of five hundred determined men following their alleged implication in a criminal assault and the murder of 17-year-old Eula Awsley, white girl, whose mutilated body was found near here Thursday night.

"Snap" Curry, the first negro burned, was taken from the custody of Freestone county officers earlier in the night as he was being conveyed from Wortham to some point west. It is alleged that he confessed to the mob that he assaulted and murdered the girl and that on his confession he implicated two other negroes, J. H. Varney and Moses Jones.

Blacks Plotted Assault

KIRVEN, May 6.—When the funeral fire finally died down this morning nothing remained but the ashes of the bodies of three negroes burned here last night.

Curry, alleged confessed slayer of Miss Awsley, is understood to have told his captors that Jones and Varney and he had planned the criminal assault since last January. The original plan was to assault two other white women as well as Miss Awsley, on the same day and in rapid succession, Curry was quoted as having said. He did not say why the plan had failed.

According to farmers living near the scene of the murder, Miss Awsley's screams were heard twice on the evening of the attack, some 25 or 30 minutes apart.

HARDING IN AIR ON BONUS PLANS

Executive Has Reached no Decision on Measure White House Says.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 6.—President Harding, after a conference today with senate finance committee Republicans, withheld decision on the soldier bonus legislation until he can study the various plans proposed.

Chairman McCumber and Senators Curtis and Watson, of the finance committee, with Senator Lodge of Mass., Republican leaders, were closeted with the executive for more than an hour. They explained the McCumber plan as outlined which is similar to the house measure and also outlined the Smooth insurance plan.

Senators said the president had expressed no opinion and that they did most of the talking.

Stall Scores Signal Honor at Convention of Picture Experts

N. B. Stall has returned from Kansas City where he attended a meeting of the International Photographers Association. The local man scored what is considered unusual honor for any town, particularly one the size of Ada, by getting five of his pictures hung in the international salon, a merit gallery of the association. This, it is reported, was one of the best individual records established at the meeting. This was all the pictures he entered.

Mr. Stall is secretary of the southwestern association of the body, embracing three states, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana. He had as competitors all the biggest cities in this part of the country.

BOYS FIGHT WITH BATS; ONE REPORTED KILLED

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 6.—An investigation was being made here today by police into a school boy fight with baseball bats following the death of Jess Crocker, 13, one of the alleged combatants. The fight is said to have occurred a week ago on the banks of the north Canadian river in the industrial section. The police said arrests may be made today.

The mob divested the sheriff of his key to the Freestone county jail where Jones and Varney were being held as suspects. Hurrying to the jail, the mob unlocked the door and took two negroes in charge. All three negroes were then rushed to Kirven, home of the dead girl, and an iron stake driven into the ground on a small square in the heart of the town. Wood was accumulated and scattered with oil to increase its inflammability.

Curry was burned first, then Varney and Jones. There was some delay in the burning of the last two inasmuch as they steadfastly maintained their innocence. Third degree methods failed to get a confession from them and they were finally executed on the strength of Curry's testimony.

After the third negro had been burned to a crisp all three were piled together in a mass and oil flung over them. They were ignited, the flames soaring to 25 or 30 feet into the air. At an early hour today the flames were still burning fiercely with prospects that the bodies would be burned to ashes.

The mob rapidly dispersed and as day dawned there were only a few persons remaining to witness the aftermath of the triple cremation.

Two Whites Held

TEAGUE, Tex., May 6.—Two white men were detained today for further investigation of their action preceding the attack and murder of Miss Eula Awsley, for whose death three negroes were burned at Kirven this morning. No announcement of charges are being filed against the men, according to reports. They were held pending investigation only.

BIBLE THOUGHT OF TODAY
THE GOOD SHEPHERD:—The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. —Psalm 23:1, 6.

MOTHER'S DAY.

Of all the special days set apart by law or custom Mother's Day is the most sacred and merits the observance that has come to the universally accorded it. It is seldom indeed that a man sinks so low into degradation that he does not reverence his mother if living or cherish her memory if she has passed away. A thought of his mother has deterred all of us from committing unworthy acts and on this day set apart to her memory causes the most hardened to pause in the mad rush of life and give thought to the memory of her to whom he owes everything worth while. In the law of nature there is nothing as lasting as mother love. There is no sacrifice the mother will not willingly make for her child. She guides his uncertain footsteps during the days when his mind is trying to grasp some of the problems of life. She rejoices in his successes and sympathizes in his times of misfortune. If he forgets her training and wanders off into crime she is by his side in the hour of retribution, even to the foot of the scaffold, and would gladly lay down her own life if it would save her wayward son. Tomorrow Mother's Day will be observed at the churches of Ada. Whether one believes in the Christian religion or not he still believes in his mother and should attend a service in her memory if she is no longer among the living or in her honor if he is still fortunate enough to have her guidance.

LET'S GET MORE.

The coming to Ada of a pickle factory and the resulting increase in cucumber acreage is but the forerunner of many such industries, we believe. And why should it not be? The growing population of the United States must be fed, and must be fed mainly from cans or with dried foods. There is no place we know of now that affords better opportunities for growing food crops than Pontotoc county. Whether it be tomatoes, berries, cucumbers, spinach, beets, beans, or a score of other food crops, they can be grown here in great quantities.

Mr. Atkinson will probably expand his pickle plant and include canning. This, however, depends upon several things and he is making no promises. We suggest that the citizens co-operate with Mr. Atkinson in every way possible, though we know this will be done. He is an admirable gentleman and the city and country are glad to have him here to start a new line of work. Let's get more industries of this kind and more men of the type of Mr. Atkinson.

TARIFF TINKERING SLOW.

The tariff bill is making slow progress through the senate. In fact, Senator McCumber, who is in charge of it, states that at the present rate it will not reach a vote before 1946. Times have changed since the days of Tom Reed and Aldrich when legislation of this sort went through like clock work. At this time too many conflicting interests have to be reckoned with and reconciled to make a tariff bill easy to get by. The politicians are mortally afraid of the next election, for the passage of a tariff bill usually means the defeat of the party sponsoring it, and the whole matter resolves itself into an effort to please everybody. In the end no one will be pleased and the advocates of the bill will have a lot of explaining to do when they take the stump again. Two thousand amendments have been added to the bill since it reached the senate committee.

The Tishomingo Capital-Democrat states that W. H. Murray has left for Peru where he will complete arrangements for his colony. He expects to return to Oklahoma in December and take the first contingent of his colony back with him. Murray is very sanguine over the possibilities of his project and expects to see it move rapidly. Peru has not undergone as many revolutions as some of the other South American republics and with the infusion of some American pep that country should be greatly benefitted. Americans are natural born pioneers and doubtless Murray's colonists will speedily adapt themselves to their new surroundings and give the Peruvians an idea of what American methods can accomplish.

This is John Fields' third attempt to reach the governor's chair. When the votes are counted in November John can still have the consolation of being in the class with Henry Clay who likewise made three unsuccessful attempts to reach the White House. Clay was the idol of his party but could not make the landing. However, Gene Debs has all comers backed off the board with four or five races.

The city park should be a very popular recreation spot for Ada citizens. Beautified by nature and by the city it offers a splendid opportunity for relaxation and for the passing of a pleasant hour. A city park is one of the best assets of any town and its citizens should avail themselves of its privileges.

ATTACK ON VETERAN BUREAU IS LAUNCHED

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Attacks on the veterans bureau and special senate hospitalization committee was made today in the senate by Senator Ashurst, democrat, Arizona, who declared that the "narrow, reactionary policy" of the bureau was that sick veterans who had to go to Arizona could go there without aid or go where the bureau directed them.

Mrs. John Sweeney returned home today after a visit of several months with relatives in Los Angeles, California.

The modern silk hat was first worn in England about 1840.

OSTEOPATHY—THE NATURAL WAY

Nature gives the normal body adaptive machinery to keep it free from the effects of disease. So long as natural forces can work unhampered there will be no sickness.

Interference with the mechanism which Nature provides lowers resistance and lowered resistance makes possible the ills and ails which we suffer.

The Osteopathic physician proceeds directly toward restoring natural resistance by keeping free from interference the natural machinery through which Nature operates.

The structures that are at fault are skillfully adjusted until they are once more normal and can work as Nature intended. Natural forces are set free and the laws of Nature return health to the body.

Osteopathy is the natural way to treat disease.

The Forum of the Press

The Prodigal Son.

(The Memphis Press)

Thirty-two senators and 435 congressmen will shortly go back home and ask the people to re-elect them to another term in Washington. And many of them are frankly worried.

Having ridden into office on the wings of a tempest of dissatisfaction with things as they were, they now fear they may be ridden out of office on a wave of dissatisfaction with things as they are.

The present huge G. O. P. majority, independent observers admit, is largely the result of the nationwide unrest which had this country in its grip in 1920. Sensing this unrest, the "outs" could not resist temptation.

"Vote for us," they chorused from Maine to California, "and we will bring you back the good old days?"

"Normalcy" was the most effective appeal of all these candidates, from Nominee Harding down. Folks were told that a victory for Harding meant a through ticket on the Good Times Express right back to the milk-and-honey days of before the war.

But somehow "normalcy" got sidetracked.

"Normalcy," the administration's prodigal son, doesn't seem able to make his homecoming stick. Try as he may to hang up his hat at the old home place, instead of the fatted calf what he gets is the boot.

Taxes are still high, and may go higher. Between Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and congress, they are prophesying a $750,000,000 deficit in our next budget, and new taxes will have to be levied to meet it.

Farmers are up against it and clamor in vain for relief. Industry is still nervous and the cost of living refuses to climb down, albeit the very bottom has dropped out of farm products, basis of our living.

Wages are on the decline and some 6,000,000 unemployed are looking for jobs.

These are just a few of the kicks "Normalcy" has received.

So it is that beads of clammy perspiration stand forth on the apprehensive political brow. Those who hoodwinked the people into sending them to Washington on the "return-to-normalcy" promise, are now trying to scare up an alibi.

It's going to be a hard summer.

Just as it has done for all opportunists since time began, the season has arrived for reconciling the "now" with the "then," and it is not going to be easy.

It is predicted that some of our congressmen and senators may be missing when the new congressional roll is called.

That Troublesome "Mrs."

(Duncan Eagle)

Just as a great many men dislike to be known as their wives' husbands, so are numerous women of today horrified at the thought that the world may look upon them as their husbands' wives. Wherefore, with the desire to obviate this most distressing situation and to protect the individuality in the bargain, various women, quite as much married as anybody else, disdain to permit the use of the prefix, "Mrs." and are facing life unafraid under their maiden names. They do not admit that a mere civil or religious form has anything to do with it; the woman who does not wish to be called Mrs. So and So should not have to bear the burden of her husband's name if she objects.

The movement is said to be growing, principally among women who were prominent as suffragists who now are turning their attention to politics. It easily can be seen that those who cling to the names already made famous—or well known—wish to have careers of some kind or other, and when a woman takes a notion to have a career the wise thing to do is to let her have just that. The plea that they should be allowed to preserve their identity is one frequently made and since the idea has only recently been given popularity, it may be inferred that the wives usually have their way for they are, for the most part, brides and their husbands are still doting. Now and then in years past women celebrities of the stage and of the art, literary and music worlds, continued the commercial use of maiden names, or non de plumes, but were known in private life by the cognomen of their respected husbands. The modern plan, however, goes farther—the wife is to be known both at home and abroad by the name she bore from the cradle up.

The disadvantages of this practice seem to be greater than the advantages. The main purpose of the prefix "Mrs." was to identify a woman who was married. It is true that she was given an altogether new name and identity, but it always had been the accepted hope that the married state was to be a permanent one, divorce to the contrary notwithstanding. Women who court careers might be unable to obtain as much publicity as they desire if they cling to the names they bore as girls, and if traveling with their husbands, hotel registration would not compliment them. The fad may not last long, but may become extinct with flapperism. As a rule, the man fit to be a woman's husband has a name that she can afford to honor and respect.

Farmers' Column

By Byron Norrell

A subscriber inquires about a good method of poisoning potato bugs. The most highly recommended plan is arsenate of lead. This can be obtained from any drug store. It should be mixed with water in proportions of 1 part arsenate to 40 of water. It should be sprayed on the potatoes or else sprinkled with a sprinkler. If neither is available a tin can by use of a very small nail. I have also found paris green mixed with water a very effective poison. This is also a form of arsenic.

The bad weather kept me in town for a couple of weeks, but Friday I took a stroll up North Broadway to Colbert community to see what progress is being made by the farmers. Everything looks promising at this time.

I found J. N. Hammond busy in his garden and truck patch and his two sons planting cotton. Mr. Hammond owns 40 acres of land well adapted to truck raising and he has made the most of his opportunity. He broke all records in 1920 by selling $2500 worth of stuff from his place. Among other things he realized $400 from an acre of melons. He also goes strong on sweet potatoes and has a concrete cellar equipped with bins that have a capacity of 1,000 bushels. He is planting 4 1-2 acres in potatoes this year and 3 acres in melons. He is a member of the association which is trying to raise enough to make shipping in car lots profitable. He is also trying his hand with half an acre of cucumbers for the Ada factory and if he finds this profitable will go stronger next year. He is of the opinion that if any cotton is raised it will bring a good price so he is planting 12 acres. He also has a bunch of hogs. He has already sold some and has others ready for market. Mr. and Mrs. Hammond have lived in this part of the state for ten years.

After a fine dinner with the Hammonds I called at J. W. Balthrop's. The Balthrops have a splendidly improved place and everything looks fine now. The orchard covers five acres and although not as well loaded with peaches as they might be, the trees have enough on them to make plenty for all purposes. The vineyard also looks promising. Mr. Balthrop has more than 40 colonies of bees. He is going strong on sweet clover. He already had 100 acres of this popular crop and this year planted 150 acres more. This will probably be the largest acreage in the county. He was just finishing his cotton planting. He will have 11 acres and does not anticipate as many boll weevils as there were last year. He says that a year ago they were numerous but now he has not been able to find any.

The Balthrops have a cow with an interesting history. During the past ten years they have realized $982 from the sale of her increase, to say nothing of the milk and butter, and have 20 head of her descendants left. Besides this they have butchered several head.

While here I met J. C. Hill, Mr. Balthrop's grandfather. He is 93 years of age and possibly the oldest man in Pontotoc county. He was born in Tennessee in 1829 and in 1849 moved to Texas, settling first in Hunt county and later moving to Wise where he lived 40 years. He stated that in all the long trip from Tennessee to Texas he never crossed a railroad. Texas had been a state only four years when he arrived there and he has lived to see all of the marvelous transformation which has taken place in this long period of time. During his lifetime the United States has engaged in four wars, the Mexican, Civil, Spanish and the world war. Mr. Hill's family consisted of three daughters, all of whom are now dead. He has 110 or more grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. Mr. Balthrop is his oldest grandson.

I next dropped in on C. N. Hammond. I first met him about five years ago when the town men were helping the farmers by chopping cotton for them. I was sent to hoe for him one day and did a pretty fair day's work. However, the enormous appetite I worked up by noon made me a rather expensive hired hand. I doubt if he made any profit on the deal. This year he will plant no cotton but will raise feed and truck especially sweet potatoes. He has a well built potato cellar under his house and can take care of several hundred bushels.

At Colbert school house I found them at work on the addition to the school house. It will be constructed of concrete blocks like the older part of the house. This will make room for four teachers and there will be ten grades in the school hereafter. This will be one of the best rural school houses in the county and there is a teacherage in connection. This school house is located on a high piece of ground that gives a splendid view to the south and east. The campus has been set in cottonwood trees and in a few years will be very pretty.

Shelby Richmond stated that most of the farmers are well up with their work. He is going in for peanuts on a large scale this year. He said there will be 90 acres on his place devoted to this crop.

R. F. Smith had just finished plowing his corn for the third time and was plowing his melons. He said he has 1200 hills of melons and expects a big crop. His garden and berries look fine and his berries are coming along although there are not many of bearing age yet. He has a patch of clover ready to cut and has planted 18 acres in this feed. He tried it out last year and is well pleased with it.

I have been considerably interested in the matter of spraying trees and dropped in at Joe Rushing's to see how he manages. He has sprayed his apple trees four times and will keep it up in an effort to get rid of the blotch that has attacked his Arkansas blacks. He used the lime and sulphur solution before the trees leafed out and has since then applied the Bordeaux mixture. He gave his peaches a spray of lime and sulphur and will give them another with the Bordeaux mixture at half strength. His peaches will make only about half a crop he said, and his Ben Davis apples will probably yield only about 15 per cent of a full crop. However, the other varieties of apples are well loaded with fruit and his grapes are most promising. He is another staunch believer in clover.

Rev. W. D. York, who lives just across the road from the Rushing place, is a new comer. He made a success of potatoes in Johnston county and expects to do something here. He will plant 20 acres in Nancy Halls and a few of the Porto Rico variety to get enough seed for next year. He has bedded out 127 bushels of Nancy Halls. He has already set out some slips and next week will go at it in earnest. He is building a stone storage house with a capacity of 9,000 bushels. He and his son are doing the work themselves and they will be out very little except their labor. The structure is 36x64 feet and the walls will be 9 feet in height. One year in Johnston county he sold $1900 worth from 8 acres and fed many bushels to his stock.

CHURCH FORCES TO SEEK WORLD UNITY PROGRAM

(By the Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, O., May 4.—With the announced purpose of bringing the united religious forces of the world to bear upon the problem of international co-operation, religious leaders of all denominations have been invited to attend the seventh annual meeting of the World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches, here May 16-18.

The gathering will be not only international but inter-racial and inter-denominational, it was stated. "The campaign for the limitation of armament which resulted in calling for the Washington conference proved that when the public opinion of the world is aroused results are accomplished," the program of the meeting states. "However much we appreciate the results achieved by the Washington conference, it must be recognized that this is a mere beginning. Much still remains to be done, in fact every accomplishment hinges upon the nations continuing in accord with each other."

Speakers will discuss international co-operation in the life and work of the churches and in the realms of relief work, world friendship, agriculture, economics, education, labor and world politics, it was announced. Among the speakers listed on the program are: Rev. Arthur J. Brown, Prof. William Adams Brown, Kenyon L. Butterfield, Dr. Edward S. Cummings, Prof. Stephen S. Duggan, Sherwood Eddy, W. H. P. Faunce, Rev. Lynn Harold Hough, James W. Kline, Rev. Lauritz Larsen, Rev. Francis McConnell, Rev. William P. Merrill, Rev. John M. Moore, A. J. Muste, Rev. Frederick Norwood, Walter George Smith and Dr. James J. Walsh.

Merrill Opens Conference.
The Rev. William P. Merrill, pastor of the Brick Presbyterian church of New York and president of the World Alliance, will open the conference on Tuesday afternoon, May 16, and sessions will be held through May 17 and 18.

In addition to churches and numerous church organizations, invitations to attend the conference have been sent to representatives of labor, Federation of Women's Clubs, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Society for the Abolition of War, Near East Relief, International Institute for Education, World Agriculture Society, Foreign Policy Association, New York Peace Society, American Peace Society, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, World Peace Foundation, Women's International League, League for Political and Social Science, International Chamber of Commerce, English Speaking Union, National Council on Limitation of Armament, and numerous other bodies.

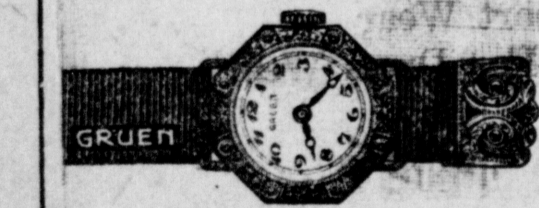

The World Alliance was instituted at an international conference of representatives of various churches held at Constance, Switzerland, in August 1914. The war, which broke out on the very day this conference met, made it necessary for the founders to wait for calmer conditions before attempting work on an international scale, but immediately after the armistice, councils were organized in twenty-two European countries and Japan.

SISLER LEADING SPEAKER AT BAT

St. Louis First Baseman And Cleveland Hitter Run Neck and Neck

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 6.—George Sisler, first baseman with the St. Louis club, and Tris Speaker, leader of the Cleveland Indians, today are in a neck and neck race for the batting leadership of the American League, with Sisler topping the heap with an average of .431. Speaker is runner up with .424. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Sisler also is showing the way to the base stealers having tucked an even dozen away, and also is the best scorer to date. He has crossed the plate 23 times.

Kenneth Williams, who promises to be Babe Ruth's rival in home run hitting this season, struck a snag in batting, dropping into fifth place. He continues to crash out homers, however, having connected with 9, a week ago, Williams shared the batting leadership with Speaker. Other leading batters for ten or more games: Elmer Smith, Boston, .398; Whit, New York, .395; Williams, St. Louis, .388; Jamieson, Cleveland, .382; Pratt, Boston, .362; Blue, Detroit, .361; O'Neal, Cleveland, .360.

Kelly Leads Nationals.
George Kelley, first baseman with the New York Giants, continues to set the pace for the National league batters. He has a mark of .448. Kelly knocked out a brace of circuit drives within the last week, but Rogers Hornsby and Al Smith of the Cardinals each poked three round trip blows, and are making the home-run race hot for the Giant slugger. This pair is on Kelley's heels with 4 each.

Hornsby has been belting the ball with great regularity and as a result boosted his mark from .368 to .404. Bob O'Farrell, the stocky catcher with the Chicago Cubs, is the runner-up to Kelley with an average of .428. Maranville of Pittsburgh continues to set the pace for the base stealers with five thefts, while Bancroft of the Giants is the leading run getter with 10 tallies.

Other leading batters for ten or more games: Maranville, Pittsburgh, .414; Earl Smith, New York, .406; Hornsby, St. Louis, .404; Walker, Philadelphia, .400; Reuther, Brooklyn, .400; Powell, Boston, .383; Tierney, Pittsburgh, .378; Harper, Cincinnati, .376.

Milwaukee to Front.
With an average of .466 King Lear, second baseman with the Milwaukee club, is the new batting leader of the American Association. Lear was tenth in the list of a week ago, with an average of .385. The figures include games of Wednesday. Red Russell of Minneapolis is out in front in home run hitting with a total of five, with Krueger of Indianapolis and Lamar of Toledo pressing him with four apiece. Mathews of Milwaukee, and Christensen of St. Paul are the leaders in stolen bases, with four each.

Other leading batters for ten or more games: Jourdan, Minneapolis, .395; Murphy, Columbus, .391; Purcell, Indianapolis, .385; Griffin, Milwaukee, .382; Russell, Minneapolis, .381; Becker, Kansas City, .372; Haas, St. Paul, .371; Mayer, Minneapolis, .370.

HIGHER EDUCATION'S A WONDERFUL THING, BUT

RICKARD ADMITS WILLARD LIKELY TO MEET CHAMP

NEW YORK, May 6.—Tex Rickard smiled an admission yesterday that he might match Jack Dempsey and Jes Willard for a night show this summer.

The only thing new in his intimation is that he is going to wire his Jersey City arena to conduct boxing at night instead of confining the big pine pile to holiday usage.

As long as Willard is able to walk and lift his arms he will be considered as worthy of another chance against Dempsey and in a day when promoters are grabbing at any one to get work for the champion, the long talked of bout might be staged.

The big Kansas is quoted as saying that he didn't believe he or any other heavyweight could beat Dempsey, but he wanted another bout to muss up the champion to get even for the mugging he got in Toledo. Willard, according to the report has agreed to terms and Dempsey is being asked by cable about it.

Even in wise circles it is accepted for a sure thing now that Dempsey will meet Willard in a championship contest in London to be promoted by Charles B. Cochrane, and that he will take on Willard after he gets over the big negro fight.

OKLAHOMA CITY BOY WILL MEET COOPER IN BOUT

Earl Lane of Oklahoma City, a middleweight fighter of considerable experience, will fight Arch Cooper, Ada middleweight, here on the night of May 25, in the monthly American Legion athletic event.

Dutch "K. O." Stone, has been matched with Bailey of Holdenville as a preliminary to the Lane-Cooper fight. Other local fighters, including Seilor Adair, Johnnie Baker, and "Iron Jaw" Sparks, are to be matched if possible, Manager Dixon, who has charge of the local fighters, said today.

The number of rounds and other matters to be settled are now being negotiated with Yane's manager. Several fighters for the other boys are being considered, but nothing definite has been learned, Dixon said.

Cooper, together with the other men here, is undergoing daily workouts. Cross country running and extensive indoor training is the bill for the local men.

$490,000 PURSE OFFERED BY DEMPSEY FOR FIGHT

PARIS, May 6.—A purse of $490,000, seventy-five per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser, was offered Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavy weight boxer, this afternoon for a return match with Georges Carpentier, the European champion, to be held in Versa Stadium the day before the Grand Prix race, scheduled for June 25.

By Norman E. Brown, POOR MIKE

He's the original tough-luck ball player.

Which same meaning Mike McNally, drapper little infielder formerly with the Red Sox and now with the Yankees.

When Miller Huggins obtained McNally in a wholesale swap with Frazee of the Red Sox before the 1921 season, Mike sort of figured he would break into the infield as a regular. Peckinbaugh was slated to play short, of course, and Wallie Pipp first. But McNally figured he had a chance against Chick Fawcett at second and Arnon Ward at third. No such luck. Both boys starred from the start and Mike drew the bench.

Later Frank Baker played third. Then came Mike's chance. Baker was injured. McNally stepped in his shoes and virtually saved the pennant for the Yanks. This spring it looked as though he could grab a regular infield job due to Huggins' outfield situation, which apparently called for the drastic move of drawing from the infield squad. No luck again. Frank Baker is regaining his prowess as a hitting king.

Mike takes it in good grace, however.

He started his pro career with Utica in 1913, drawing attention to himself previously as a member of the famous Minooka Blues.

His first year with Utica, McNally was purchased by the Red Sox. They farmed him to St. Paul, where he ran a dead heat with Gerber of the Columbus club for shortstopping honors in the American Association.

He played a brilliant game at second for the Sox in 1920 and last year for the Yanks played sixteen games at second and forty-seven at third.

GREEN'S TEAM TO MEET OLD RIVAL HERE ON SUNDAY

One of the oldest rivals on the baseball field for Ada Independents will be here tomorrow to cross bats with the home team in an effort to stem the onslaught of Manager Green's forces for the state independent championship this year. This team is Allen.

Allen has been playing several state league teams this year with success and promises to push the local men to their limit tomorrow at Fair Grounds park. Ada took the best of last year's games with Allen and expects to be as successful this year. Results of the game with sulphur are promising as to the results of the game with Allen.

Manager Green will use practically the same line-up tomorrow he has been using. All the men have been getting some work-outs this week, especially the latter part of the week as the weather has been very favorable.

BATHERS CROWD TO COOL POOLS EARLY IN YEAR

A sport which has grown in prominence during the past two years was taken up again this week. It is swimming. Managers of swimming pools in this vicinity state that this week's warm weather has sent a flock of bathers to the welcome waters of the cool bathing pools.

Glenwood Park bathing pool was opened by the Ada Athletic association last Monday and a large number of persons have been swimming this week. Manager Overby at the city lake stated that yesterday saw a large number of bathers, the first of the season. Reports from Ford's pool south of town are that the bathing season will open shortly.

With ladies of the city, the opening of the local park municipal bathing pool was the beginning of a swimming era. Styles in bathing suits are now as important as styles in dress. Local dealers are beginning to advertise bathing suits and accessories.

Ford's sulphur lake, two miles south of town, was opened today. Many bathers were reported there.

Bud Ballew's Body is Riddled With Shot

throughout the shooting. "I fired twice at his body," said Chief McCormick this morning, "and when he did not fall, the thought flashed through my mind that he might have on a breast plate, so I fired at his head."

McCormick came to Texas several years ago from Ft. Smith, Ark. He was appointed chief of police here on April 18, resigning as Sargeant of a local company of the state rangers.

Charles Dickens insisted on having his bed placed north and south.

TWILIGHT GAMES TO OPEN MAY 16

Four Nines in Training For City Season to Be Opened Soon

Four teams will swing into practice at once in preparation for opening the city league season about May 16 as a result of a meeting of representatives last night to organize a twilight association.

Teams which will be in action are American Legion, City Clerks, Teachers College, and Midgets. The Midgets will be a high school eleven, coached and managed by Paul "Lefty" Waner, southpaw twirler for the Teachers College and for the Ada Independents.

Suits for the clerks' team have been furnished by business houses of the city. Competition for berths on the various squads of the league is expected to wax warm within the next week. Members of the regular Ada town team will be divided among the various twilight nines in order that all may be equally strengthened. The league is expected to give valuable practice to the school teams and enable them to present formidable players in their scholastic schedules next year. It will also be of benefit to the town team, it is believed.

The league will operate under the Ada Athletic Association, Ralph Waner, president, said. Games probably will be on Tuesday and Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Tickets held by association members will admit to all games.

Babe Ruth and His Wife Are Operated Upon at Same Hour

NEW YORK, May 6.—Babe Ruth, baseball's foremost slugger, and Mrs. Ruth underwent operations successfully Wednesday at St. Vincent's hospital. Both were under the knife at exactly the same hour during the forenoon and at noon their physicians pronounced their condition satisfactory.

The home run king was the first to go on and the first to leave the operating table. His tonsils were removed. Mrs. Ruth's operation was more serious.

No callers were permitted in the afternoon, friends of both having to content themselves with brief statements of the physicians.

"Babe" saw Mrs. Ruth for a short time before they entered the operating room and cheerfully urged her to be brave. If possible the home run king will be kept in bed for several days.

WHITE PLAGUE IS TWICE AS FATAL TO MEN AS WOMEN

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Tuberculosis kills almost twice as many men as women in New York City, Goddard J. Drolet told members of the National Tuberculosis Association in their meeting here today. Mr. Drolet is statistician of the New York Tuberculosis Association.

He said that in the 12 years since 1910 tuberculosis had taken in New York 71,271 male victims, as against 41,097 females. The death rates of the two sexes in 1921 were respectively 123 and 83 per 100,000. The reason for this difference in tuberculosis mortality was found, said Mr. Drolet, in the conditions under which they work which break down resistance and cause the development of adult tuberculosis.

Mr. Drolet described a movement in New York to extend tuberculosis dispensary work into industry. This has been undertaken by the Government Tuberculosis Clinic of the Bellevue and Allied Hospitals at the suggestion of the New York Tuberculosis Association. An industrial health survey of workers employed in the district covered by that institution is being made.

Beginning in February, 1922, Mr. Drolet said, an industrial nurse made a preliminary survey to ascertain the possibility of going into local factories for the actual examination of workers. Several managers welcomed the idea and agreed to utilize the health service offered which consisted of educational talks to the employees and an annual examination of all persons ten percent underweight or who complained of suspicious symptoms. Until work proves too heavy, however, all who wish are being examined.

Cases found suffering from tuberculosis are referred to their physicians or to other clinics if they cannot pay for treatment.

In District Court.
New cases filed in district court are: Haynes Hardware company vs. J. Q. Moore, abstract of judgment; Iva Braley vs. Joe Braley, divorce; Francis National bank vs. Community store, recovery of money.

RUSSIAN CITIES SUFFERING MOST IN NEW REGIME

SUIZAN, on the Volga, May 5.—Five hundred miles from Moscow and at the border of the famine belt, it becomes evident that the first year of Soviet Russia's new economic policy has made far less changes in the provinces than in Moscow, Petrograd and the other big cities.

Far removed from the seaports, connected with the manufacturing districts by a broken transport system overloaded with the shipments of food and seed grain to the worst stricken hunger regions, large provincial towns such as Suizran have, naturally, benefited very little by the present freedom of trade. They are not starving and seem to be further down the Volga, but at this time of the year, with the next harvest some months off, they are living day to day from hand to mouth.

Markets are open, but display scanty stocks and at prices as high or higher than in Moscow, while the peasants and town dwellers have not the abundance of paper money which seems common to all in the cities. Besides, they are slower to think and spend in millions and seem reluctantly to part with the printed bits of paper which Moscovites spend freely today in the belief that they will buy less tomorrow.

In the principal streets of Suizran, which has more than 40,000 inhabitants, the correspondent counted less than 10 open stores in a mile's ride. There were three of four bakeries, displaying meager stocks of pastries and black and white bread, a meat shop or two, and some others had in their grimy windows a few pitiful bits of feminine finery doubtless of pre-war vintage.

Most of the buildings were empty, their boarded or broken windows speaking the desolation of seven years of war and revolution that shows much more plainly in the provinces than in newly resurrected Moscow.

When the Volga opens in the spring, some of Suizran's shop-windows may be filled again and if the coming harvest is normal, the town may loose its air of depression, but, as it stands today, it seems an example of the desolate provincial towns of the better class that dot Russia from Vladivostok to Petrograd and from Archangel to Odessa.

Swedish Scientist Didn't Recant His Theories at Death

STOCKHOLM, May 5.—The claim often made that Emanuel Swedenborg, the Swedish scientist, philosopher and theologian, recanted his doctrines on his deathbed was controverted in documents published in the Swedish newspapers in connection with the celebration of the 150th anniversary of his death. Swedenborg died in London, March 29, 1792, and the anniversary of that event was observed by his followers throughout the world.

The documents just published here give a complete record of his last illness and his death in the home of a hair-dresser, Richard Shearnsmith of London.

According to these papers, Swedenborg told his hostess the date of his departure from this world. This was about a month before his demise. Shortly after 5 o'clock on the day of his death, he asked the Shearnsmiths what time it was and, on being told, he said: "Well then, I thank you. God bless you." Ten minutes later he passed away quietly.

During his final illness he was asked by the Rev. Arvid Ferellius if he did not want to abjure some of his teachings before leaving the world.

Swedenborg is said to have risen from his bed and said: "As true as is your sight of me here before your eyes, so true is also all that I have written, and I might have said more if I had been permitted to do so."

Swedenborg's body was exhumed in London in 1908 and brought over to Sweden on the cruiser Flygia and buried in Upsala Cathedral.

Busy Public Official Says Theodor's Black-Draught Helps Him Keep Physically Fit.

Clay City, Ky.—"I have been in business here for twenty-one years; am also coroner, riding the Kentucky hills and under all kinds of conditions," says Mr. Sam T. Carr, of this place. "To be able to do so, I must keep physically fit, and Theodor's Black-Draught is my standby."
"These trips used to give me headaches, and that, I found, came from hurried meals or from constipation."
"I was convinced that Black-Draught was good, so now I use it, and it gives perfect satisfaction. It acts on the liver, relieves indigestion, and certainly is splendid. I am never without it."
When you have a feeling of discomfort after meals, causing a bloating sensation, headache, bad breath, and similar common symptoms, try taking a pinch of Black-Draught after meals—a pinch of the dry powder, washed down with a swallow of water. This has been found to assist the stomach and liver to carry on their normal work, and helps prevent, or relieve, constipation.
Your druggist can supply you with this well-known, purely-vegetable liver medicine. Insist upon Theodor's, the original and only genuine Black-Draught liver medicine. NC-137a

Go To Church Sunday

New Pastor Makes Bow.
Rev. E. O. Whitwell, new pastor of the Presbyterian church, desires to make his bow to the citizens of Ada and the surrounding community in general and to members and friends of the church in particular.

"In beginning the active work of shepherd of the flock permit me to say a few things to be remembered."

"I am not here only to serve the church, but to use the church as a force in serving the city and community and thereby make the church popular by reason of the good it does to as many people as possible."

"To accomplish this we must first become well acquainted with each other and with the needs of the field of operations, thoroughly organizing ourselves to give each worker plenty of definite tasks to keep him so busy with valuable services that there will be no time to make trouble in idleness."

"I most cordially invite the full co-operation of the members and friends of the church specially in the following ways and as many more as you may think of."

"Talk to me about what you think I should do and do not talk about me to others regarding the things I fail to do."

"Call me, write me, send for me when you or your friends are sick, in trouble, in love, or for any other service of a minister. I am not a mind reader and do not communicate with spirits to find your needs."

"Let us all be boosters not knockers, workers not shirkers, soldiers not slackers, seeking by all possible means to prove worthy of the honor of citizenship in the country in which we live and the kingdom of God."

"To do my duty among you as a Christian and a citizen shall be my every day purpose, but my highest ambition will be to inspire and lead as many people as possible to victory in the battles of life thus helping to make our city and country a better place in which to live the life that now is and prepare for the life that is to be."

"Command me when it is possible for me to serve you and be ready at all times to assist me in serving others; thus may we be co-workers together with God and with one another in being the friend of man. Remembering that he is the friend of God only who is the friend of his fellow men, let us seek to be greatest of all by being servants of all."

"Hoping to see multitudes of you each Sunday morning in the City Hall taking part in the Bible school and the church services, I ask the privilege of subscribing myself your humble servant in Christ."

"Minister Presbyterian Church."

Missionary Society First Methodist Church.

Snapshots from the Council Meeting: As an example of missionary zeal, the secretary of the Roswell District of the New Mexico Conference made the trip to San Antonio in an automobile, traveling nearly six hundred miles.

It was stated by the Secretary of Latin America and Africa that "Women and Missions" had been translated into Spanish and was being studied in the mission study classes of the Mexican auxiliary.

Miss Case made a telling statement when she said that in Africa the missionaries were able to buy little girls from their parents for five dollars, after which they were placed in the Christian schools.

At the beginning of the business session, Mrs. Stephens, the president, displayed with great pride the beautiful gavel which was presented to the Council by Rev. Waldo Moore, of Biloxi, Miss. The wood was taken from a tree which grew in the yard of Peter Cartwright's home.

It was a time for rejoicing for the Council and for the two hundred and sixty-four thousand women and children of Southern Methodism, when the report of the Estimates Committee was read. One million and a half dollars was appropriated by the Council for the coming year in the work of home and foreign missions.

Invitations were extended from Mobile Ala., Tampa, Fla., and Macon, Ga., for the Council meeting next year. It was finally decided to accept the invitation from Mobile.

Methodist Sunday School

1100 is the goal set for the attendance at the Methodist Sunday school for the coming Sunday. Interest in the Sunday School has been increasing considerably during the last few months until at present the average attendance approaches very near the 500 mark. It is the ambition of all Ada Methodists to make Mothers' Day the greatest day in attendance record in the history of the local church. Several hundred extra copies of Sunday School lesson sheets and quarterlies have been ordered in anticipation of the increased attendance, and provision is being made to provide additional seating capacity, so that those who have not been in regular attendance or strangers need have no fear of lack of accommodations. Every Methodist should come to the Methodist Sunday School and bring others who are not members of other Sunday School
